

As part of its commitment to community policing, the Tulsa Police Department designates an LGBTQ+ Community Liaison Officer. The purpose of this position is to bolster the Department's relationship with the LGBTQ+ community through better coordination, communication, and crime and safety awareness. Currently serving in this role is Captain Thomas Bell. Captain Bell is a patrol shift commander at TPD's Riverside Division and is a 16-year veteran of the department. Captain Bell has been deeply involved in numerous community policing initiatives throughout his career such as Project Trust, participating in the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice's Camp Anytown youth program, and volunteering on numerous boards for organizations such as Oklahomans for Equality and Domestic Violence Intervention Services.

Captain Bell can be reached at tbell@cityoftulsa.org or 918-576-1300.
